Teachers Protest Collins Pay Stand

In a telegram sent to Governor LeRoy Collins Thursday night of last week members of the faculties of the Pahokee High School and the Pahokee Elementary School joined in protest against the governor's proposals for school and schoolteacher legislation.

The text of the telegram was as follows: "We, the faculties of Pahokee High School and Pahokee Elementary School, wish to express our concern over the announcement that you, Mr. Collins, are opposed to raising the standard of expenditures for Florida teaching and Florida schools to the national average.

"It is inconceivable that Florida's children must be penalized by overcrowded classrooms and sub-standard schools and equipment. These problems can be overcome only by paying Florida teachers a salary commensurate with their training and professional status, and providing funds for new buildings and equipment.

"We also wish to go on record as opposing any system of merit raises. In the opinion of members who have taught or administered under this type of system, no valid criteria for measurement of the effectiveness of a teacher can be devised. Such a system can create antagonism toward the administration and dissension within the staff, where cooperation and mutual regard have been the rule."

MUSICAL COMEDY

A musical comedy, "Talent Takes a Holiday," will be presented by the Beta Omicron Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, in the high school auditorium Friday, April 12, at 8 p. m. ### Here Is What Transpired At Monday's Meeting Of The Palm Beach County Commission

The county commission this week set May 6 as the date for the first public hearing on the county's new zoning regulations and named May 13 for final passage of the new laws.

Meantime, according to Commissioner Roy Michael, chairman of the county zoning committee, final district maps and copies of the regulations will be available for public study on April 19. Michael said the maps and regulations will be posted in all districts following a plan that was used earlier with tentative zoning maps.

In a report to the commission, Chairman Michael said that of the 458 requests for changes to tentative zoning laws, made during a series of public hearings on the proposals, 85 percent of the requests have been reviewed and plotted on county maps. He said the requests have been studied by the commission and zoning department personnel and that recommended changes for final action are now being drafted and mapped.

Michael said the tentative maps and preliminary regulations have been greatly expanded to meet requested changes.

He also announced that for six months after the new zoning code is in effect, residents will have an opportunity to make application for changes without cost. After the six months period, he said, applicants for changes to zoning regulations, will be required to pay all costs in connection with advertising the request.

A decision to oppose any legislative act to establish an industrial commission to be financed with taxes was voted by the county commission this week.

Vice Chairman Roy Michael said there had been some plans to have a county sponsored bill to establish such a commission for inviting industry to locate here.

After several meetings with civic groups throughout the county commission seek establishment of the industrial council.

Principal objection to the original plan, Michael said, was that the proposal provided for financing from county funds but took operative authority out of the hands of the county commission.

In another action on legislative matters, the commission voted to oppose an act providing for payment of $1,150 in county funds to Gladys Mickle, who was injured in an accident at Phipps Park in 1956.

Commissioner Paul Rardin, who made the motion to oppose the act, which has been introduced at Tallahassee by Sen. F. O. Dickinson, said it would be establishing a dangerous precedent if the county offered no opposition to the bill.

Attorney Harry Johnston said the commission is not liable for injuries sustained by park visitors. Mrs. Mickle sustained an injured back on a slide at the Phipps Park recreational area.

A land trade in which the county will acquire a 10-acre plot owned by the school board near the county agricultural headquarters, was authorized this week by the county commission.

Commissioner Lake Lytal was authorized to meet with school board officials in an attempt to trade a 10-acre plot of land to be secured by the county, to the school board in return for its lands on Military Trail. The school board land would be used for agricultural experiments.

In other actions this week, the commission:

Received a resolution from the City of Belle Glade asking the county to give further study to the extension of Duda Road to intersect with Airport Road—a plan which Commissioner Paul Rardin said had been under study for some time.

Received a petition asking that Monet Road between U. S. Highway 1 and the inland waterway be renamed.

Voted to install lights at the Glades Airport.

Agreed to loan two voting machines to Seacrest High School for a school election May 1.

Approved a lease of county lands to the Delray Beach playhouse.

Cinematic Chatter

By Malcolm Millar

Hello everybody! Tom Ewell, clever movie comic, has come to the defense of the purveyors of "rock-'n'-roll" music. He states he has worked with fourteen "rock 'n' roll" singers and their musical combos and learned something of their ways. "I can't see how this 'rock 'n' roll' thing is corrupting the youth of the nation as some people say," says Ewell. Certainly one one can complain about their manners. They are mostly Southern boys and perhaps that accounts for it. They all stand up when spoken to; address you as "sir" or "mam" and, although they are so respectful and genteel that it is hard to believe there is much harm in them. A lot of them, it turns out, learned to sing in church choirs." Although they sing such songs as "Cool It, Baby," "Blue Suede Shoes," and "Hound Dog" with movements and gestures which suggest happy agony; wear sideburns and long hair, they still seem a pretty good lot to Tom Ewell. Ewell comes to Hollywood after years on Broadway and touring America with some of the best stock companies. His future in pictures seems bright and, although he has a dour look at times, he is a pretty happy, go-lucky chap. See you at the movies—Mal.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. Hugh Branch entertained at her home Saturday afternoon with a party for her son, Chipper, on his sixth birthday anniversary. An Easter egg hunt was the feature attraction on the program of entertainment.

Sport Fishing Comes Rather High

MIAMI—Salt water sports fishermen spend 290 million dollars a year in Florida. So says a preliminary report to the State Board of Conservation by the Marine Laboratory of the University of Miami.

The report is based on a survey under way for the past several months in which 6,000 salt water fishermen were interviewed by conservation agents. The survey reveals fishermen put in about 22,000,000 "man days" with rod and reel around the state's coast line.

The survey also found that the people who fish for fun in salt waters spend from $5 to $18 a day for boat rentals, travel, food, fishing tackle and bait. Many fishermen regard this estimate as ultra conservative, however, for it does not include entertainment. There are some fishermen who buy one or two bottles of "entertainment" for each $1 spent for bait.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Phillips had as guests Tuesday his brother, Mote Phillips; also Bill Hixson and Joe Brown, all of Naples.

Cabbage Palm Hearts

I remember cuttin' out cabbage palm hearts. Lots of folks today don't even know about eating those hearts. It was a lot of work but it sure was fine eatin'. I hear they put a law against cuttin' trees on public land tho. I can see how they did 'cause there sure was no fixin' that tree up again. In those days, we just went into the woods and cut a cabbage and sometimes they were too close to the road. I can see how we might have cleaned out all our young trees in a short time. There's one thing about this law that I do like. It stopped cuttin' roadside trees, but it doesn't prohibit me from cuttin' my own trees.

Someday I'll cut one of my own trees just 'cause I enjoy that cabbage. I'd be put out if someone passed a law that stopped me from cuttin' my own trees. Think that's a bit far fetched? Well, from where I'm sittin' it's pretty close to being the same as tellin' me I can't enjoy a friendly glass of beer with my neighbors. I'm in favor of a law that helps people. But, I'm a little slow to vote for a law that's going to hinder many and help nobody!

Pick your savings target and shoot straight for it!

A home . . . financial security . . . a business of your own. Important savings targets like these cost money—a substantial sum—and more than most of us have. But here's a sure way for you to score a bull's-eye and walk off with the big prize you want.

The secret of saving is system. And the simplest, most automatic saving system ever devised is the Payroll Savings Plan. Best of all, you do more than save through Payroll Savings. You invest your money, too, and make it grow. Here's how it works:

Tell your company pay office how much you want to save each week. Then each pay period that amount will be put aside for you before you have a chance to spend it. Your money will go automatically into U. S. Series E Savings Bonds.

Because Savings Bonds earn good interest—3% compounded semiannually when held to maturity (9 years and 8 months)—they're soon worth much more than you've invested in them. And your Bonds will continue to pay this same good interest as long as 19 years and 8 months. That means a return of up to 80% more than you originally paid.

And remember this. There's no guesswork or chance about the Payroll Savings Plan. It's absolutely safe and sure. Invest just $7.50 a week. In 5 years you'll have Savings Bonds worth $2053 in cash; in 10 years, $4448.

Even if you've never been able to save before, this plan is guaranteed to work for you. So sign up today for Payroll Savings where you work—or invest in Bonds regularly where you bank.

Millions Spent On Local Flood Work

WEST PALM BEACH.—Contributions to project costs exceeding $11 million have been made since 1949 by taxpayers in the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control District. By June of this year $11,386,901 will have been spent on the multi-purpose flood control and water conservation project by the 17 counties comprising the FCD.

In addition, the State of Florida, from the General revenue fund, will have spent approximately $10 million for project works benefiting the State and the nation. During the same period the Federal government has appropriated and expended $38,074,000.

According to a report of the Florida Water Resources Study Commission, the FCD has more functions looking to preservation of Florida's water resources than any other local, Federal, or State agency.

Florida's water resources are second only to her human resources in importance. All segments of Florida's population, economy, and general welfare are directly influenced by the waters that lie on, beneath, and around the state.

The contribution of FCD to water resources conservation is not limited to flood control. Its many purposes include storage of surplus water, prevention of over drainage, prevention of salt water intrusion and fish and wildlife conservation as well as other vital functions.

The impact of this system on the economy of the State and the nation may not be fully realized for another decade. However, in view of the emphasis placed on water resources conservation at all government levels, it is likely that a Federal appropriation will be made to FCD to shorten this decade by several years. Florida must be ready to participate in any such Federal appropriation. In view of the part water plays in the economic welfare of Florida, such participation is vital. Therefore, the FCD is requesting the 1957 State Legislature to appropriate $6,700,000 for project works. This appropriation will insure that the FCD program benefiting not only central and southern Florida but the entire state can continue to serve the purpose it is designed to perform.

Mrs. Tucker Will Entertain Club

Mrs. George H. Tucker, Sr., will be hostess to members of the Canal Point Garden Club at a club meeting to be held at her home in Canal Point Tuesday, April 16, at 2:30 p. m. New officers will be elected at this meeting and there will be a plant identification contest. Mrs. O. H. Chastain will report on the National Convention and Mrs. Lloyd Hundley, president of the Pahokee Garden Club, will report on the State Convention.

Future Supply Of Water Studied

WEST PALM BEACH.—Management of water resources in central and southern Florida by the Flood Control District is insuring an adequate future water supply, according to an announcement this week.

Twenty two counties in the watershed area served by FCD benefit from the multi-purpose project serving flood control and water conservation purposes.

According to a Florida Water Resources Study Commission report, water supplies for future foreseeable municipal, agricultural, industrial and recreational purposes can exceed the demand if they are properly managed.

Management of water resources in an area comprising one-fourth of Florida was turned over to FCD in 1949. Since that time, Federal State and local interests are cooperating in the design and construction of a flood control and water conservation program designed for the future as well as the present.

FCD project canals, pumps, and levees not only remove flood waters rapidly and store surplus water, but they prevent overdrainage and protect developed areas.

Both present and future municipal water supplies are being protected from salt water intrusion by control structures in canals and maintenance of ground-water levels.

Agricultural water users are being assured of adequate future supplies of water in all parts of the District. Structures provided by FCD remove water in time of flood to conservation areas and make it available in time of future drought.

Future adequate supplies of water of proper quality and quantity for industrial uses are safeguarded by FCD project works. Recreational uses of water and fish and wildlife conservation play a large part in FCD planning.

Sheriff Opposes State Law Plan

TAMPA.—Hillsborough County Sheriff Ed Blackburn says he is "unilaterally opposed" to public prosecutors being allowed to use the Florida Sheriff's Bureau to make investigations. He said the result would be the beginning of a state police force which he is also opposed to.

Blackburn made his statement during a Press Conference over Tampa's WFLA-TV. He is a member of the board of the sheriff's bureau created at the 1955 session of the legislature.

The bureau is asking for nearly $1,000,000 from the state during the next biennium to hire 16 investigators and to set up a crime laboratory. Blackburn said when the laboratory is set up any agency in the state could take advantage of it, but he was of the opinion the investigative powers should be limited to requests by the various sheriffs of the state.

About 100 investigators, he continued, would be needed if the bureau got into the work of supplying prosecutors with investigations.

Five Flags Show Gets Publicity

PENSACOLA.—Plans are under way in northwest Florida to stage historical tours in conjunction with Pensacola's annual Fiesta of Five Flags, according to T. T. Wentworth, Jr., chairman of the committee in charge of the event.

"We plan to cover all the most interesting historical spots and hope to include famous Fort Pickens," Wentworth said.

The Fiesta will be held May 15-18. Charles Henry Overman, Jr., is president of the festival association.

Susie Todd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Basil Todd and first grade at the Pahokee Elementary School, has returned home from the Belle Glade Memorial Hospital where she recently underwent a tonsillectomy.

Bonds Offered To Extend Pike

FT. LAUDERDALE.—The Florida Turnpike Authority has authorized the sale of 185 million dollars in bonds to extend the toll road to the Florida-Georgia line. Announcement of the move came from Thomas Manuel, chairman of the authority, following a meeting with representatives of leading financial institutions.

Financial leaders told the authority they thought the time was "poor" to market bonds. But authority members were optimistic and instructed fiscal agents to have the bonds ready to market in 90 days.

Manuel said revenue from the bob-tailed toll road from Miami to Ft. Pierce has exceeded expectations. He said he thought the proposed extension to the Georgia line would be equally successful.

Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Armstrong expect to have as guests this weekend her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ridenour of Indianapolis, Ind., also her sister, Mrs. W. H. Bowers of Orlando.

Christian Science Group Of Canal Point

How sickness as well as sin can be overcome through spiritual understanding of God, divine Principle, will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday.
 Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" is the Golden Text from Psalms 103:2-4: "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases; who redeemeth thy life from destruction."

In addition to passages from the King James Version of the Bible, selections will be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy including the following (406:1-6): "The Bible contains the recipe for all healing. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. Sin and sickness are both healed by the same Principle. The tree is typical of man's divine Principle, which is equal to every emergency, offering full salvation from sin, sickness, and death."

Uncle Sam made the bonds you own an even better bargain!

Now your maturing Series E Bonds can earn interest 10 more years at 3%

PRESENT TREASURY REGULATIONS make it possible for you to collect a return of as much as 80% on the Series E Savings Bonds you already own!

For now those Bonds which you invested in 10 years ago can go right on earning interest for ten more years without your doing a thing about it! That is true not only of the Bonds which you have held for ten years, but any other Series E Bonds which you have invested in in the meantime. And any Series E Bonds which you obtain now will also enjoy the extended earning period. They will start earning interest sooner and mature earlier, too, paying 3%, compounded semiannually.

The Bond you got for $18.75 can now pay you $33.67 . . . a $37.50 Bond will be worth $67.34 . . . and so on.

Of course, any Series E Bond may still be redeemed at any time after you have held it for two months. But, like any other form of saving, your Bonds will mean a great deal more to you if you can hold on to them.

Are you one of the millions of Americans who are saving regularly with Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan? If you're not, why not start now? Invest regularly in Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. Ask your pay office to save as little as 25c a week for you, or as much as you are able.

If you can save just $5 a week regularly through the Plan, in five years you will have $1,367.90 . . . in 9 years and 8 months, you'll have $2,850.70 . . . and in 19 years and 8 months, $6,872.45! This Plan is one sure way to save because it saves something out of every check before you have a chance to spend it.

So join the Payroll Savings Plan where you work today. Or, if you are self-employed, start the Bond-A-Month Plan where you bank. It's safe, it's sure, it's automatic. And you will be helping yourself and your country!

If you want to be paid
your interest as current income—
invest in 3% Series H

If you want a good, sound investment which pays you your interest by check every six months, ask at your bank about United States Government Series H Bonds. Series H is a new current income Bond available in denominations of $500 to $10,000. Redeemable at par after 6 months and on 30 days' notice. Matures in 9 years and 8 months and pays an average 3% interest per annum if held to maturity. Interest paid semiannually by Treasury check. Series H may be purchased at any bank, annual limit $30,000.
